Rina was cleaning her grandfather's old house when she came across a dusty box. She looked over it carefully and figured out it was a treasure map!

She decided to take off immediately to find the hidden spot.

Along the way, her friend Raju pointed out that the map had secret clues. They worked out the riddles together and turned into real detectives!

In the end, they dug up an old metal chest filled with coins. They decided to give away some to the poor and pay off their loans with the rest.

When Ayesha's uncle passed away, she was named the chief beneficiary in his will. She was grateful but sad.

Later, she invited her childhood friends over. They laughed about the time when they broke up a silly fight, got away from a strict teacher, and even shirked off homework!

They decided to spread out a picnic on the lawn. Everyone helped iron out small problems, like fixing the torn tent.

The afternoon turned into a perfect memory.
