Story One: A Conversation at School!

Today is Rashid's first day at school. After reaching his classroom, he sat down on a bench. He sat beside a boy named Hassan.

Rashid: Hi, I'm Rashid. What's your name?

Hassan: I'm Hassan. Nice to meet you, Rashid. Where are you from?

Rashid: I'm from Chittagong. Where are you from, Hassan?

Hassan: I'm from Rajshahi. When did you move to Dhaka?

Rashid: I moved here just last month. Why did you choose to come to this school?

Hassan: Well, my parents thought it was a good school.
Why did your parents choose this school for you?

Rashid: My parents heard good things about this school too. Do you have any siblings?

Hassan: Yes, I have a younger sister. How about you? Do you have any siblings?

Rashid: No, I am an only child. What do you like to do in your free time?

Hassan: I like to play soccer. What about you? What are your hobbies?

Rashid: I enjoy reading books. What's your favorite subject in school?

Hassan: Math is my favorite subject. How about you? Is there a subject you enjoy?

Rashid: I really like science. Is it your first day in this school too?

Hassan: No, I've been here for a couple of years now. How about you? Is it your first day?

Rashid: Yes, it's my very first day. What do you think about our new teacher?

Hassan: I think she's nice. How about you? What do you think about her?

Rashid: I haven't met her yet, so I'm not sure. What's your favorite book?

Hassan: I love adventure stories. Do you like to read adventure books?

Rashid: Yes, I do. Which adventure book is your favorite?

Hassan: I really enjoyed "Treasure Island." Have you read it?

Rashid: No, I haven't. What is it about? Who is the main character?

Hassan: It's about pirates and treasure hunting. The main character is a boy named Jim Hawkins. Have you read any books with pirates in them?

Rashid: No, but that sounds interesting. Can you recommend any other books with pirates?

Hassan: Sure, you should read "Peter Pan" too. It's another great one. Have you heard of it?

Rashid: Yes, I've heard of it. By the way, what class do we have now?

Hassan: I think we have Chemistry class now. But the teacher is late. Why do you think the teacher is late?

Rashid: I think the teacher is late because of traffic. How long does it take for you to come to school?

Hassan: It takes 30 minutes if there is no traffic. And 1 hour if there is traffic. Do you know when our tiffin period is?

Rashid: Tiffin period starts from 1pm. Now it is 11am. So two hours later.

Hassan: Okay thank you for telling me. What did you bring for tiffin?

Rashid: I brought noodles. What about you?

Hassan: I did not bring tiffin. I brought 100 taka. I will buy tiffin from the canteen.

Rashid: What will you buy?

Hassan: I am not sure yet. Do you know what is good here?

Rashid: Buy the chicken burger from the canteen. It is very delicious.

Hassan: Thank you for telling me. Oh look, the teacher is here.

Story Two: !

Once upon a time, in a quiet village in Bangladesh, there were two friends named Amina and Rafiq. They loved spending time together, and one sunny afternoon, they decided to have a picnic by the banks of the Padma River.

Amina: Hi, Rafiq! What did you bring for our picnic today?

Rafiq: Hi, Amina! I brought sandwiches and some fruits. What about you? What's in your picnic basket?

Amina: I brought some Pithas (Bangladeshi Rice Cakes) and some fruits. Do you like Pithas, Rafiq?

Rafiq: Yes, I do! What kind of Pithas did you bring? Are they sweet or savory?

Amina: They're sweet Pithas made with molasses. Do you have any allergies, Rafiq? Are there any foods I should avoid?

Rafiq: No, I don't have allergies. Thanks for asking. Have you been to this spot by the Padma River before?

Amina: No, it's my first time here. How about you, Rafiq? Have you been here before?

Rafiq: Yes, I've been here a few times. Why don't we set up our picnic blanket under that big tree over there?

Amina: That sounds lovely, Rafiq. Why do you like this spot so much?

Rafiq: Because it is very peaceful and quiet. What do you like about picnics, Amina?
