

Story Writing Practice Session

PUROPURI ENGLISH SHIKHI
PACKAGE

english
boli

english
boli

Write a story about a sunny day at the beach.

This is Rifat. Rifat loves going to the beach. Today's weather is very bright and windy. So, Rifat thought that going to the beach today would be a wonderful idea.

That is why, Rifat packed his bags with a blanket, food and an umbrella. For food, he brought - sandwiches, Rice, chicken and chips.

After packing his bags, he put the bags in his car. And he carefully drove to the beach. He also brought his sunglasses with him.

After reaching the beach, Rifat brought out the bag from his car and walked to the shore. Then he laid the blanket on the sand. And he sat on the blanket and set up the umbrella. He was now ready to have a picnic.

Rifat realized that he did not bring any water with him. And also, having a picnic by himself will not be very fun. So, he decided that he should invite his best friend Sadman.

That is why, Rifat brought out his phone and called Sadman. And he said, "Hey Sadman, I am at the beach right now. Do you want to join me?"

Then Sadman said, "Hey Rifat, I am free! I would love to join you!" Hearing this Rifat was happy and said, "Please bring water with you!" And after half an hour, Sadman showed up and both of them had fun!

Write a story about a surprise birthday party.

Samiha is a 7 year old girl. Recently, her parents shifted her from one school to another. This made Samiha very sad. Because she had a lot of friends in her previous school but she does not have any friends in her new school.

Samiha's birthday was after one week. So, she was worried, since she does not have any friends, she thought no one would come to her birthday party.

However, a week later, on the day of her birthday, she was surprised when she came home from school.

She saw that all her classmates from school were already at her house. And there were birthday decorations all around her house. She asked her mother, "How is this possible?"

Then her mother said, "I called all the parents of your classmates and I invited them to come to our house for your birthday."

Samiha was overjoyed and extremely happy. All her classmates sang the happy birthday song for her. And they all cut the birthday cake together.

So, not only did Samiha have a wonderful birthday but also she made a lot of new friends. Samiha was no longer sad about shifting schools.

Write a story about a lost puppy finding its way home.

Poko was recently adopted by a loving family. After adoption, his family bought a lot of toys for him. They also bought a special red collar for him. The collar had Poko's home address written on it.

One day, Poko saw that the front door of their house was open. So, Poko carelessly walked outside. He saw that there was a red bus just a little far away from him. Seeing this, he ran straight to the red bus and got on it.

The bus took Poko very very far away from his home. After one hour, Poko got off the bus. Poko looked around and saw that he does not know where he is. Everything seemed unknown and unfamiliar. Poko became scared because he realized that he was lost.

He started crying. Seeing Poko cry, an old man approached Poko. He picked Poko up and carried him to his home. After taking Poko to his home, the old man gave Poko a lot of food and water. He also petted him.

While petting, the old man saw that something was written on the dog's collar. The old man examined the collar and saw that a home address was written on it. He immediately understood that this dog belongs to someone else.

So he set out with the dog to give him back to his owners. He got on a bus with the dog and an hour later, he reached the address which was written on the dog's collar. He rang the calling bell of the house and the door was opened by Poko's family. Who were relieved to see him. They thanked the old man for his kindness.

Write a story about a day at a village fair.

Today was Sabbir's exam at school. Sabbir studied a lot for his exam, but he still did not do well. So, he was very sad when he came home from school. His father noticed this. He came up to Sabbir and asked why he was sad. Sabbir said, " I studied very hard for today's exam but I still did not do well."

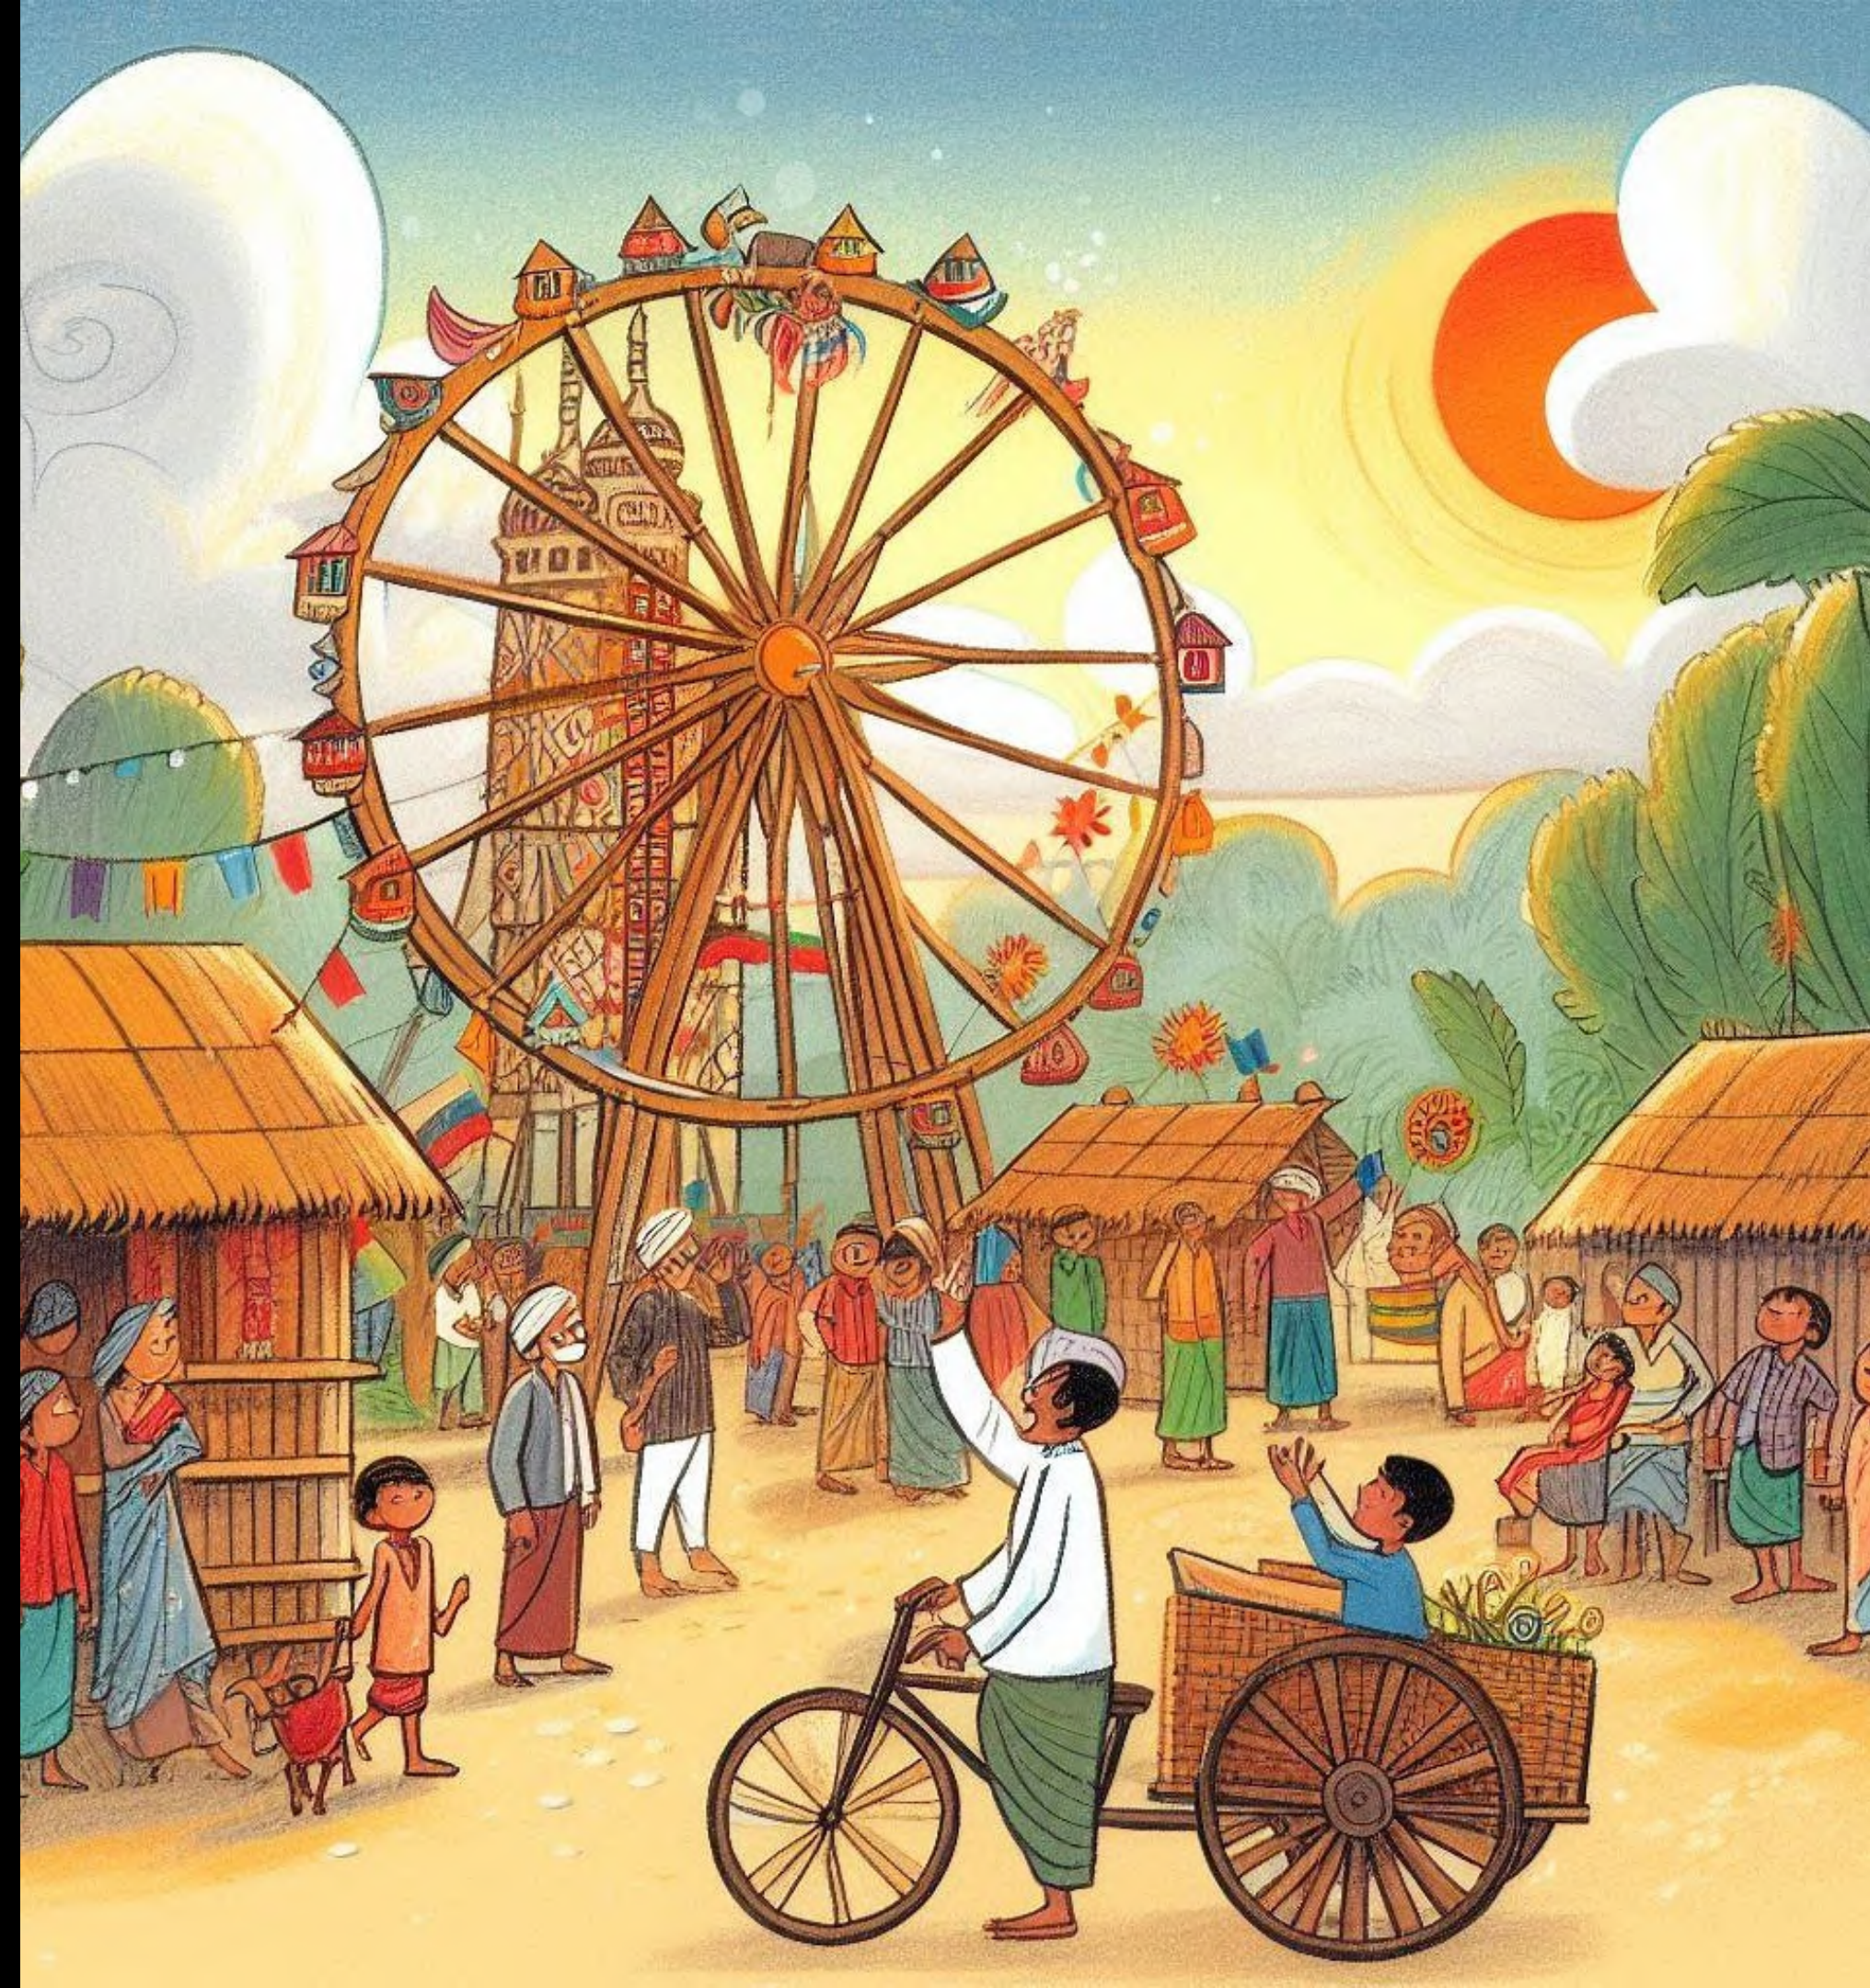

Then his father said, " That's okay. Keep your chin up. You will do better next time. Just keep trying."

He further said, " There is a village fair today. Let's go there together. It will be a lot of fun and I am sure you will feel better if you go there."

So, they both got ready and headed out to go to the village fair. They went there by their van. Sabbir's father sold vegetables so he had his own van.

After reaching the village fair, they had a lot of fun. They got on the wooden Ferris wheel. They ate cotton candy. They also met their neighbors and friends at the fair. After meeting them, they all hung out together for the rest of the day.

Sabbir completely forgot about his exam after coming home from the village fair. And both his father and him created wonderful memories together that they would remember for the rest of their lives.

Write a story about a rainy day indoors.

Afnan is supposed to play cricket with his best friends today. So he was very excited. He got up early and took a shower. After that, he got ready. Picked up his cricket bat and cricket ball and was about to head out. At that moment, it suddenly started raining heavily.

Afnan realized that, it will not be possible to play cricket today. So, he came back to his room and sat down on his bed feeling very sad. He called his friends and they all realized that they cannot play cricket today. They were all very sad.

Seeing this, Afnan's mother came up to him and said, " Don't worry Afnan. Don't be sad. We will have a good time at home today."

His mother further said, " I will cook all your favorite dishes today. Will that make you feel better?"

Afnan asked, " What will you cook?"

His mother replied, " I will cook Hospos, Duck, Daal and Shrimps." Hearing this, Afnan got very excited and became happy immediately.

After an hour, all the dishes were ready. And his mother served them on the table. Afnan sat down by the table, looked out the window, enjoyed the rainy day and ate his delicious meals. Even though he thought today would be a bad day, he ended up having a good time.

Write a story about a family picnic in the park.

Nasif and Maisha are a couple. They have two young daughters - Rifa and Samiha. Nasif is a government officer. Today is a government holiday.

So, Nasif is staying home with his family. Suddenly, Nasif and his wife Maisha starts talking about their childhoods which were spent in the village in front of their children. Nasif and Maisha said that they would always go outside of their home and hangout with their friends in the open fields. Sit on the grass, eat food and have a good time.

Their children then asked, " Is that possible in the city?" After thinking for a bit, Nasif said, " I believe it is. "

Nasif told Maisha to cook some delicious dishes and pack them them in lunch boxes. After a while, Maisha was done cooking and she packed everything in lunch boxes.

Then, they all got in their car and drove to a park nearby. After reaching the park, they sat down on the grass and had a wonderful picnic under the trees.

Even though they lived in the city, they could still enjoy a little bit of nature within the park. This made both Maisha and Nasif nostalgic about their childhoods and also gave their children a lot of fun.

